

THE GREATEST SHOWMAN

Welcome to our show!

In a series of whimsical and colorful musical numbers, The Greatest Showman brings the menagerie of P.T. Barnum's traveling three-ring circus to life on the big screen.

Inspired by the imagination, innovation and life of Phineas Taylor Barnum, who "helped invent show business", the film shows how Barnum, a family man, turned his misfortune into a world of mystique and magic that would become the "Greatest Show on Earth."

comfort zone

A situation where one feels safe or at ease

A settled method of working that requires little effort and yields only barely acceptable results

Stepping out of our comfort zone means doing things that we don't feel comfortable with doing.

Pushing ourselves in unfamiliar places, to do things that we wouldn't normally do

Are you comfortable?
Or do you want more?

Comfort

Why push ourselves
to leave our comfort
zone?

Comfort zones
are danger zones!

They lead to complacency

Block growth

Trigger negative mindset

Lead to missed opportunities

Limit our chances to live life to the fullest

#1 Comfort zones lead to complacency

The fear of leaving our comfort zone leads to complacency and the greatest obstacle to success is complacency

The secret to success of highly successful people is often contributed to doing what is uncomfortable; being prepared, actually eager, to make the sacrifices necessary to achieve success.

Thomas Edison said, “We shall have no better conditions in the future if we are satisfied with all those which we have at present.”

Comfort zones

From preschool through college, teachers challenge students to stay out of their comfort zone.

Once students master addition, they are introduced to subtraction; then multiplication and division.

For their entire educational experience, students are kept out of their comfort zone.

In fact, all discomforts associated with education lead to greater opportunities.

#2 Comfort
zones Block Growth

IN ANY GIVEN MOMENT
WE HAVE TWO OPTIONS:
TO STEP FORWARD INTO
GROWTH OR TO STEP BACK INTO SAFETY.

-ABRAHAM MASLOW

A comfort zone is the place we mostly feel contented and secure.

Unfortunately, this also often causes us to close our doors to change and progress.

We fear the discomfort that change will bring in our life.

Fearing change is like disapproving progress and growth.

The danger - It leads us to becoming obsolete in an everchanging world.

“Fear To Change
is the Enemy
of Success.”

Robin Sharma

Do not fear failure

Do what you are scared of

Take more risks

Out-fail the competition

See the opportunity in every failure

In our last hour we will not regret our failures. We will regret the risks we did not take

“Our excuses are just the lies our fears have sold us”

"DON'T LIVE THE SAME YEAR 75
TIMES AND CALL
IT A LIFE."

-ROBIN SHARMA

#3 Comfort zones trigger negative mindset

Being too comfortable in life causes idleness that trigger negative mindset and attitude.

An idle mind creates negative attitudes and circumstances.

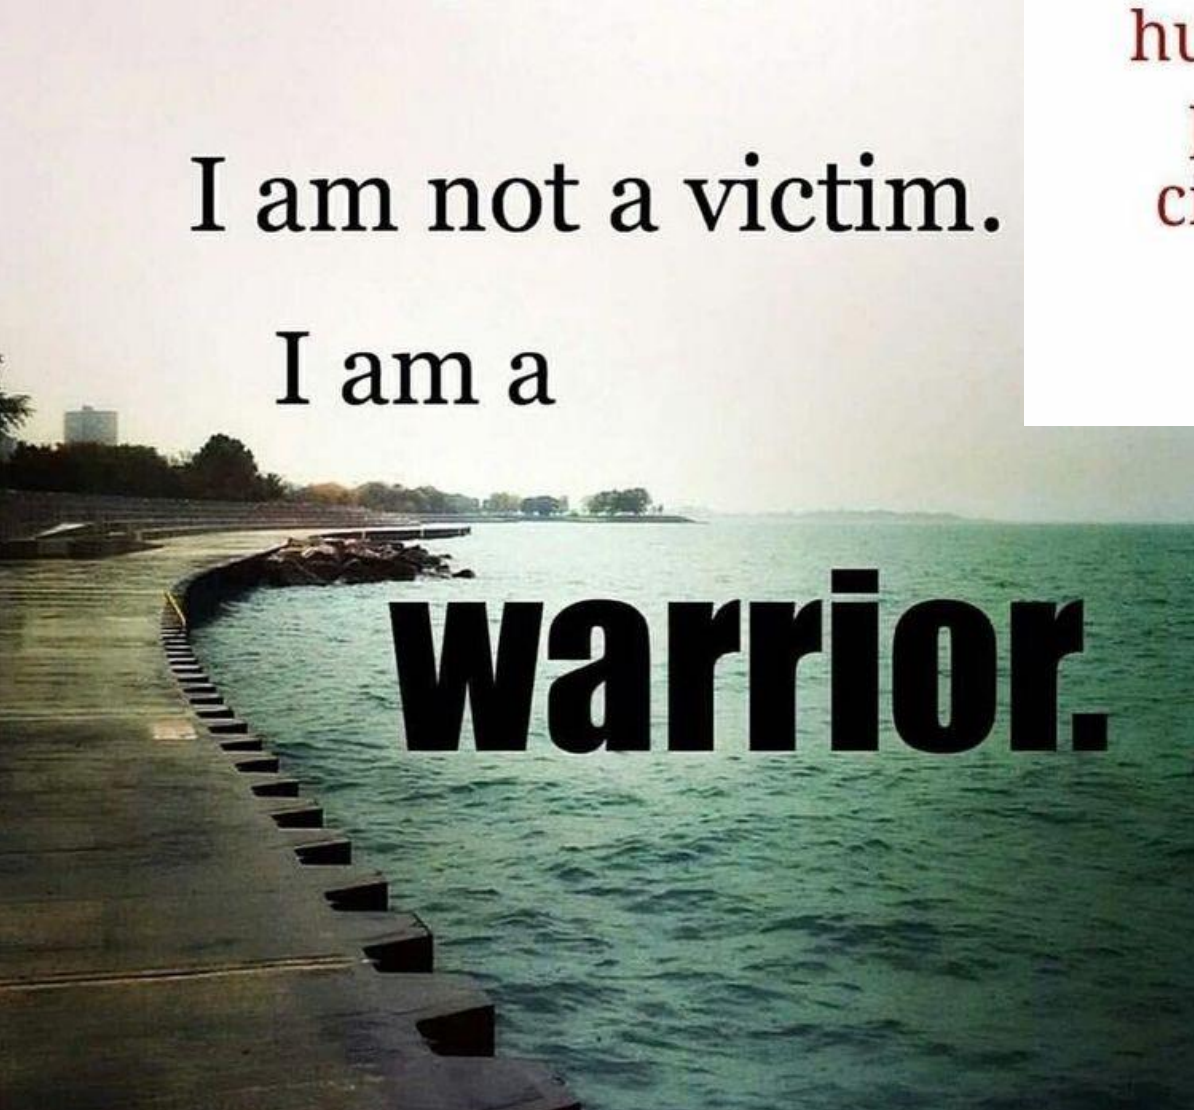

As the saying goes.....

An idle mind is the devil's playground.

Because we feel discontented and we have more free time on our hands, we have a great tendency to create negative emotions and thoughts of negativity.

People who are hardened by life because of negative emotions tend to blame their circumstances

YOU ARE NOT A VICTIM OF CIRCUMSTANCE.
YOU ARE A PRODUCT OF YOUR DECISIONS.

I am not a victim.

I am a warrior.

The victim mindset dilutes the human potential. By not accepting personal responsibility for our circumstances, we greatly reduce our power to change them.

- Dr. Steve Maraboli

#4 Comfort zones lead to missed opportunities

We can only achieve real sustainable success if we remain on the look-out to grab each opportunity at hand.

On the other hand, don't expect success if you wait for things to happen instead of creating it.

When we are in our comfort zone, we are just waiting for things to happen.

Unless we take risks, we cannot grab opportunity ahead of others.

Being too comfortable causes us to be left behind.

PT Barnum had to convince people to leave their comfort
zones.....

A man in a red military-style uniform with gold buttons and a top hat, looking upwards with his arms outstretched. He is surrounded by falling confetti. The background is dark.

They find the courage to do it and he changes them into stars and makes their wildest dreams come true!

to brave"*

YOUR COMFORT
ZONE

Often, we only leave our comfort zone when we are forced to

PT Barnum starts following his dream of a magical life only after he is sacked from his mediocre job

And again when he loses it all.....

His circus burns down, and his family leaves him

He gives up

But then.....his group of performers save him, and make him remember the dream

He makes it happen again.... And the Big Top is born!

He finds his real purpose in life.....being there for his family and helping them fulfill their dreams.....

Now that is a dream worth pursuing!

YOU ARE NOW LEAVING THE COMFORT
